The 3 Legacies:

Recovery,

Unity,

Service

Note from the Editor & Area D Delegate

Dear Members:

This is the last time we plan to publish D-Liberation in a newsletter format.

The newsletter has a venerable history and many members have produced wonderful stories of service and sobriety.

However, the format of a newsletter is possibly not current, in the age of connectivity; we will, from now on, update Area D's website more regularly with news of events and works in our region.

Of course, just like D-Liberation, this will only work if members and groups contribute. Please write to us about:

How your Group works to retain new members

How your Group's format is unique, but part of our unity

How sobriety is working and how recovering helps all of us.

Any contributions sent to arednewsletter@gmail.com will be forwarded to our site's Web Master for upload.

Attraction, Not Promotion

“Through many painful experiences, we think we have arrived at what that policy ought to be. It is the opposite in many ways of usual promotional practice. We found that we had to rely upon the principle of attraction rather than promotion.”

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pp 180-181
